

Chill Quickly

Get freshly-picked berries out of the heat and cooled as soon as you can so they'll stay fresh longer.

Why?

Cooling below 41°F within 2 hours slows the growth of most harmful bacteria and viruses and helps to preserve the quality of the berries. Plan on bringing a cooler with ice to keep them cold on the way home.