

Follow us as we go Strawberry Picking with the Reds

Meet the Reds

Once there was a family called The Reds who came to pick strawberries: Mr. and Mrs. Red, their two kids, Ron and Rachel, and their dog Riley.

Mrs. Red wasn't feeling well, but came anyway to help with the kids and the dog. (The kids refused to go unless their dog could come, too.) Mr. Red packed some sodas and the same picking container they used last year, which they had left in the storage shed next to a bag of fertilizer.
